MASS CASUALTY RESPONSE WORKSHOP

Lessons Learned from the Orlando and Las Vegas Mass Casualty Incidents

Tuesday, Oct. 30, 2018, 8 a.m. to 1 p.m., FREE

Experience an insider's perspective of two of the largest mass casualty shootings in American history: the Pulse Nightclub shooting in Orlando, FL, and the Route 91 Music Festival in Las Vegas, NV. Explore and discuss the responses to these two horrific attacks: what was done well, what decisions were made, and what lessons were learned during each critical and stressful event. A question-and-answer session will take place after the presentations.

Seating for this extraordinary event is reserved for law enforcement officers, firefighters, paramedics, trauma center and medical personnel, criminal justice and fire science students, and all public safety employees.

Register today for this important training event presented by the Homeland Security Training Institute at College of DuPage.

Visit cod.edu/hsti or call (630) 942-2183.
